FULBRIGHT CENTER

The Fulbright Center specializes in cultural exchange between Finland and North America. It awards grants for academic exchanges between Finland and the United States, advises on study and research opportunities in the United States and Canada.

The Fulbright Center is a non-profit organization funded by the Finnish Ministry of Education, the American and Canadian governments, and a Trust Fund founded by the Finnish and U.S. governments. The Fulbright Center is governed by an eight-member Board of Directors, with equal Finnish and American representation. The Finnish members are appointed by the Finnish Ministry of Education and the U.S. members by the American Embassy in Finland. The U.S. Ambassador to Finland serves as the Honorary Chairperson of the Board.

The Fulbright Center awards grants to close to 80 Finnish and American students, academics, and professionals annually. In 2010-2011 a total of 24 Americans have received a Fulbright grant to lecture, conduct research, study, or teach in Finland. In addition, the Center awarded 9 short-term grants during the academic year.

Please contact the Fulbright Center should you wish to contact a Fulbright grantee or invite a grantee to lecture at your university.

| MAJOR ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE: | Electrical Engineering | |
| SPECIALIZATION: | Digital Image/Video Analysis and Modelling, Multimedia Data Compression, Communication and Networking | |
| CURRENT POSITION AND INSTITUTION: | Director of the Signal and Image Processing Institute (SIPI) and Professor of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, University of Southern California | |
| ACADEMIC TRAINING: | PhD, MIT | 1987 |
| | MS, MIT | 1985 |
| | BS, National Taiwan University | 1980 |
| PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND: | Dr. C.-C. Jay Kuo was Computational and Applied Mathematics Research Assistant Professor in the Department of Mathematics at the University of California, Los Angeles, from October 1987 to December 1988. Since January 1989, he has been with the University of Southern California (USC). He is presently Director of the Signal and Image Processing Institute (SIPI) and Professor of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at the USC. His research interests are in the areas of digital image/video analysis and modeling, multimedia data compression, communication and networking, and biological signal/image processing. Dr. Kuo has guided 104 students to their Ph.D. degrees and supervised 21 postdoctoral research fellows. Currently, his research group at the USC has around 30 Ph.D. students, which is one of the largest academic research groups in multimedia technologies. He is co-author of about 175 journal papers, 800 conference papers and 10 books. He delivered over 450 invited lectures in conferences, research institutes, universities and companies. Dr. Kuo is Editor-in-Chief for the Journal of Visual Communication and Image Representation (an Elsevier journal), and Editor for the LNCS Transactions on Data Hiding and Multimedia Security (a Springer journal), the Journal of Advances in Multimedia (a Hindawi journal) and the EURASIP Journal of Advances in Signal Processing (a Hindawi journal). He was on the Editorial Board of the IEEE Signal Processing Magazine in 2003-2004. He served as Associate Editor for IEEE Transactions on Image Processing in 1995-98, IEEE Transactions on Circuits and Systems for Video Technology in 1995-1997 and IEEE Transactions on Speech and Audio Processing in 2001-2003. | |

| PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND: | Although my initial opinion of contemporary music was not favorable, through continued exposure and experience in the genre, I have come to view this music as essential for the survival of music as a living art. As a performer, I often choose lesser-played repertoire, and attempt to support current composers through performances and recordings of their works. Recent experience that highlights this activity in contemporary music includes participation in the 2009 University of Kentucky Arts Asia Festival: East meets West (Jue Yue; C.C. Leung, composer); work as both adjudicate and performer for the 2007 and 2009 Kentucky New Music Competition/Festival; premieres/recordings of several piano works by Joseph Baber, Professor of Composition at the University of Kentucky, in 2004; and a 2003 performance of Samuel Barber's Piano Concerto with the University of Kentucky Orchestra. My introduction to the music of Einojuhani Rautavaara (1928-) came from a performance of his Piano Sonata No. 2 "The Fire Sermon" while I served as adjudicate for the 2005 University of Cincinnati: College-Conservatory of Music Dayas/McElroy/Bauer Piano Competition. The initial interest caused by this brief exposure has slowly developed into a deeper appreciation for Rautavaara's piano music, and I hope to create greater awareness and understanding of these works through musical performances, lectures and written publications. Study of these works was begun while an exchange student at the Sibelius Academy during the 2008-2009 academic year and continued as the focus of my doctoral thesis (Unity and Pluralism: A stylistic survey of the compositional techniques of Einojuhani Rautavaara as reflected in selected works for the piano. DMA Thesis, University of Kentucky: 2009), and has also resulted in several performances of these works in both Finland and the United States. Previous awards include an American Scandinavian Foundation Fellowship (2008-2009), a Finlandia Foundation Grant (2008), and a University of Kentucky Dissertation Enhancement Award (2008). | |
